

The All-loving God created man to radiate the Divine light and to illumine the world by his words, action and life.